Report: Literary Competition 2025

The Literary Competition 2025, themed "Igniting and Transforming," was a grand success, held on April 11th and 12th, 2025. The event aimed to foster creativity, critical thinking, and public speaking skills among students. A total of five competitions were organized: Painting, Poetry, Essay, Debate, and Extempore Speech. Students from various departments participated enthusiastically, showcasing their talents and competing for top honors. Our special guest, Dr. Meysisangla Longkumer, Joint Director, Department of Tribal Affairs, Government of Nagaland, graced the occasion with her presence and insightful words.
